1. This is a petition impugning an order dated 17.12.2005 rejecting an application for recall of witness on the ground that further cross-examination to bring material important facts was required to be done. Across the bar it was sought to be argued that certain material contradiction was not put to the witness. There is no mention in the application that what was the important material that was not put in the cross-examination. In the circumstances, not a fit case to interfere. Hence, Writ petition is dismissed.
